1. Listen and fill in the blanks. Track 2

Boy: Who is my true friend? Of course, Robin! Robin is like my brother. I count on him, and he trusts me because we always back up each other. That is very important in friendship. Friends should be honest, fair and patient with each other. I love and respect Robin. So does he.

2. Listen and circle the correct option. Track 3

Beatrice: Hello, I am Beatrice. I have two close friends, Vicky and Megan. Megan is laid-back, but Vicky isn't. She is self-disciplined. She takes everything serious and does her duties always on time. Although they are different from each other, I enjoy spending time with both of them. I always have fun with Vicky because she likes doing crazy things like walking in rain. I become a solemn girl when I am with Megan. We read books, visit the museums, etc. I love them very much.

Henry: Hi, I'm Henry. I'd like to introduce my best friend Jim to you. I get on well with him very well because I have a strong bond with him. We always back up and count on each other. We're a little bit different in personalities. I'm not outgoing, but he is because he has a lot of friends. I prefer staying in my room and reading books. Jim's laid-back. I am not. He never panics. I'm always in a hurry. He likes doing sports. I'm interested in art. I can draw pictures. He can play tennis very well. You see we're different, but we're still close friends. Friendship means loving, caring and sharing to me, not being the same.
