1. Listen and write the responsibilities of the members of the Morgan family.

Track 41

Emily: Hello, I'm Emily Morgan. I would like to talk about the responsibilities that we have at home. I must make the beds and dust the furniture. My elder brother Tony is in charge of loading the dishwasher and setting the table. Roger, my younger brother is responsible for walking the dog and feeding the cats. Mum must do the laundry and ironing. Dad's chores are going shopping and cleaning the garage. Cooking? Oh! We are all responsible for cooking! I like making salads.

2. Listen and fill in the blanks. Track 42

Girl: Hi! My brother and I have to do some chores at home. I'm responsible for doing the laundry, and I have to mop the floor. I must also set the table. My brother's in charge of walking the dog, and he has to take the garbage out. We don't mind doing them because family members should share the responsibilities.

1. Listen to Yavuz. Then, answer the questions. Track 43

Yavuz: Hello, I am Yavuz. I wrote an article about the responsibilities that we have in our families. Would you like to listen to it? Okay! Listen! Everybody has responsibilities in their families, and they must respect each other. For example, we must be respectful to the elderly and obey the house rules. I must respect my sister or brother's rights and so must they. We have to do our responsibilities like making our beds or setting the table, etc. without any complaints. If each member of the family does their chores, life becomes easier. Sharing duties and feelings make a family have strong ties.
