

Vocabulary: Newspapers & Journalism

article	n. a text or piece of writing on any non-fiction subject broadsheet^{UK}	n. a large-format newspaper with usually serious contents censor	n. official with the power to stop publication of certain articles - censorship n. chequebook journalism	n. the obtaining of exclusive rights to a story by payment of large sums of money correspondent	n. 1 person who writes a letter to a paper 2 person who writes articles for a paper critic	n. a person who writes articles, esp. stating opinion, about art, music etc desk	n. a department of a newspaper [eg: the sports desk] edit	v. to check, modify and generally prepare written material for publication editor	n. 1 a person who edits 2 the head of a newspaper or newspaper department editorial	n. an article written by the editor stating his opinion exclusive rights	n. rights or permission for one paper to publish a story that no other paper can feature	n. a special or regular article in a newspaper, usually displayed prominently front page	n. the first page of a paper, usually carrying the most important story headline	n. 1 the title at the top of an article 2 headlines the most important stories journalist	n. a person employed to write articles for a newspaper - journalism n.
media	n. the media all the means of mass communication (papers, TV, radio etc) opinion	n. what a person thinks about a particular subject; a subjective point of view paper	n. 1 thin, flexible material for writing or printing on 2 newspaper story	n. a news article or report tabloid	n. a small-format paper, with short, sensational stories - see broadsheet