

Vocabulary: Property

apartmentUS	n. a room or group of rooms to live in, usually on one floor; flatUK development	n. a number of buildings on a large piece of land - real-estate developer n.
elevatorUS	n. a compartment for moving people from floor to floor in a building; liftUK en suite	adv. forming one unit [eg: bedroom with bathroom en suite] - also adj.
estate agentUS	n. a person whose business is to sell or let land or property on behalf of others first floorUS	n. storey of a building at the same level as the street or ground; ground floorUK flatUK	n. a room or group of rooms to live in, usually on one floor; apartmentUS for sale	offered for purchase; to be sold; available to be bought freehold	n. the holding of land or property for an unlimited period of time - also adj.
furnished	adj. [of a house, apartment etc] let with furniture - to furnish v.
garden	n. space or ground surrounding a building, often with flowers, trees etc; yardUS ground floorUK	n. storey of a building at the same level as the street or ground; first floorUS landlord	n. a person who owns an apartment, house, office etc and lets it to a tenant leasehold	n. the holding of land or property for a predetermined period of time - also adj.
let	v. [let, let] to give the use of a building etc in return for periodic payments or rent liftUK	n. a compartment for moving people from floor to floor in a building; elevatorUS rent	v. to make periodic payments (monthly etc) for the use of a building etc - also n.
storeyUK	n. one of the levels of a building; floor; storyUS tenant	n. a person who rents an apartment, house, office etc from a landlord yardUS	n. space or ground surrounding a building; garden